

OrbiMed Announces New General Partner

NEW YORK, February 3, 2020 – OrbiMed is pleased to announce the promotion of David Bonita, M.D., to General Partner. David joins the firm's six existing General Partners, Sven H. Borho, Carl Gordon, Jonathan Silverstein, Carter Neild, Geoffrey Hsu and Scot Stevens.

Since joining OrbiMed in 2004, David has led numerous transformative investments in innovative biopharmaceutical and medical device companies, including Loxo Oncology, Tricida, Cryterion Medical, and Therachon SAS, among others.

"David's investments have contributed significantly to the financial returns enjoyed by OrbiMed's clients, but more importantly his companies have discovered and developed numerous therapies that treat life-threatening unmet medical needs," stated Jonathan Silverstein, a Managing Partner of OrbiMed.

"David's promotion to General Partner is a recognition of his extraordinary contributions to the firm in recent decades," stated Managing Partner Carl Gordon. "We look forward to his growing organizational leadership in the years to come."
