

OrbiMed Launches $924 Million Royalty & Credit Opportunities Fund

NEW YORK, January 30, 2015 – OrbiMed, a leading investment firm focused on the healthcare sector, today announced the closing of its second healthcare royalty and credit opportunities Fund, OrbiMed Royalty Opportunities II, LP, with $924 million in commitments, including $24 million from the General Partner. Investors in the fund include a broad range of premier endowment, foundation, pension and other institutional investors.

Consistent with its predecessor, the new fund will acquire healthcare royalty streams and provide tailored debt capital solutions to healthcare companies and institutions worldwide. The Fund expects to commit between $20 million to $150 million per investment, with the ability to commit larger amounts in collaboration with other OrbiMed funds.

“OrbiMed is active across a broad range of worldwide healthcare investing, including royalty and credit opportunities, public equity, and private equity. Interest in this fund reflects the strong appeal of the OrbiMed strategy and our $14 billion global platform,” said Samuel D. Isaly, Managing Partner.

“We are grateful for strong support from the LP community, which made for an efficient fundraise that exceeded our target with just a single closing,” said W. Carter Neild, a Partner at OrbiMed. “We are particularly excited to welcome a dozen leading medical research and healthcare institutions as investors. OrbiMed looks forward to a strategic, collaborative relationship with them going forward.”

“We offer structured capital solutions, including combinations of royalty, debt, and equity financing, that provide companies and institutions another tool to solve their capital needs while also bringing them into the OrbiMed family,” noted Tadd Wessel, a Managing Director at OrbiMed.

“We are a value-added partner for our portfolio companies, bringing OrbiMed’s substantial strategic and operational resources to help them grow successfully,” commented Matthew Rizzo, a Managing Director at OrbiMed.
